

Adult Race Camp

Zermatt, Switzerland - October 23 - 31, 2010

Train with three time World Cup Champion Todd Brooker and Olympic & World Cup coach Ken Ellis
on the Plateau Rosa glacier above
Zermatt, Switzerland

Plateau Rosa, located at the base of the Matterhorn, is the highest glacier in Europe.
With its excellent snow & terrain it is the preseason training home of many World Cup Teams.

World Cup Teams train in Zermatt because it is the best environment and opportunity to focus on technical skills. . Days of continuous training with expert coaching ensures that when you start the season on snow in Canada you have established a good foundation

HEAD WC FIS race skis will be available to train with during the camp

Included in Package: $2495.00 Cdn (+taxes) Flight not Included
Based on current prices and exchange rate...subject to change

Return train Geneva to Zermatt
8 Nights Accommodation - 7 nights in Zermatt - 1 night in Geneva
6 days skiing/training with coaching - gate training - daily video
5:1 Athlete to Coach ratio

While in Zermatt the group stays at the Hotel Plateau Rosa - 200 metres to lift.
Accommodations are double occupancy, each room has washroom with full shower.
Accommodations include breakfast & dinner each day at the hotel & lunch at the Italian canteen on the glacier.
Lunch on travel days & dinner in Geneva Oct 30 not included.

$500.00 Deposit required to reserve a spot.
Balance $1995.00 due by September 10, 2010

Best Snow + Best Coaches + Best Skis = Best Camp

To register contact Ken Ellis, Program Director
705-739-1485 or tkellis@sympatico.ca
Mansfield 705-435-3838 Est 234 or kenellis@mansfieldskiclub.com